FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY, May 5-6 P. M. The stock market has been moderately firm but dull o-day, business on Saturday being now mainly confined the foreneon. Confidence in higher prices is apently unimpaired by the intervals of sluggish specu-ion which vary the upward movement, and it is gene rally conceded by all acquainted with the facts that the value of railway property is improving, while the pros-

There is a strong probability that the Consolidati efore long become a law, the Finance Committee aving, it is reported on good authority, already agreed report it favorably, and the sentiment of both houses sing in accord as to the desirability of a funding stock the kind proposed. This when accomplished cannot all to inspire and sustain confidence in values generally, or to furnish assurance of uninterrupted mone-ary ease at the financial centres, the latter being dispensable to the success of the loan. The opections which may be urged against the principle exempting the new bonds from all federal and State exation are modified by the consideration that the only conds are used in Europe, and a large portion of the re-mainder by persons whe pay little or no income tax. the result is that the public debt yields much less to the evenue than is generally supposed, and the loss to the reasury consequent on entire exemption would bear no comparison to the saving of interest by the reduction of he rate to five per cent through the funding process pro-

The money market shows no new feature, and loans The money market shows no new reature, and loans are freely made at 5 per cent on railway securities and a 4 ½ on governments. Balances were offered near the close of business at 4. First class commercial paper at sixty days is discounted at 5 a 6 per cent, and long date at 6 a 7. Gold opened at a deckine from the closing quo-ation of last evening, but gradually became firmer. The price at half-past ten A. M. was 127%, and at half past twelve 127%. These were the extremes of the day, and the market closed steady, at 127%. Leans were made at 2 a 4 per cent for carryin 1272. Loans were made at 2 a 2 per cent for carying and at 3 per cent for borrowing; but the majority of smasaotions were without interest. There was a larger asport of treasure than usual to Europe by this day's steamers, the total aggregating $991,515, of which about $600,000 was in bar gold and silver. The Hernn took of this amount $221,300, the Allemania 3,000, the City of London $311,000, the Malta $250,615 d the Lafayette $145,600. The export for the week

We understand that the preliminary papers in an action at law were served upon the representatives of the Bank of the Commonwealth at the suit of the Continental Bank yesterday, to recover the amoust of the check upon the Continental, paid by the forger Ross to Cronise & Co., and by them lodged to their credit at the former institution. Two of the firms victimized by Ross have suspended business pro tem., in consequence.

Skiddy, Randall H. Green, C. E. Beebe, W. W. Thompson. J. Ripley, S. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall distinctly state the tax and the object to which it shall be applied; and it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax or object.

that the new law should not be enforced at the time

The Comptroller of this State has just issued the following circular in relation to the issue of registered and coupon county bonds:—

Componential's Oppice, Albany, April 27, 1866.

The following regulations are hereby adopted for the issue of the indebtedness of this State, authorized by chapter 329, laws of 1865, and chapter 209, laws of 1866, and published for public information:—

First.—The new issue will be in the form of registered stock and bonds with coupons attached, payable in twelve years from the 7th day of April, 1865, with interest at the rate of seven per cent, payable semi-annually, on the 1st days of January and July of each year; and the Comptroller's revenue bonds, issued under chapter 55, laws of 1863, may be converted into either form of indebtedness, as may be desired.

Second—Holders of revenue bonds maturing on the 1st day of July, 1868, are required, on or before the 1st day of June next, to surrender the same to the transfer agent of the State, at the Hank of the Manhattan Company, in the city of New York (who will issue receipts therefor), and at the same time signify the form of indobtedness, whether registered stock or coupon bonds, they desired in sychange. The transfer book will close on the 1st day of June next, to afford time for the preparation of the new issue, which will be ready for delivery at the Bank of the Manhattan Company on the 1st of July following, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

Tard—Revenue bonds matering on the 1st of July next, in conformity with the forecoming registations.

THOS. HILLHOUSE, Comptroller.
